Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell

1. Introduction

The Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell (ARMC) of Mata Gujri University (MGU) functions as a central institutional body to ensure a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment. It works in accordance with the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, and the directives of the National Medical Commission (NMC) and other statutory councils governing allied health sciences.

2. Objectives

- To prevent, deter, and eliminate all forms of ragging on campus and in associated hostels.
- To create awareness among students regarding the ill effects and legal implications of ragging.
- To establish a transparent, prompt, and student-friendly mechanism for reporting and redressal.
- To monitor implementation of anti-ragging measures across all constituent colleges and departments.
- To ensure strict compliance with guidelines from UGC, NMC, AICTE, INC, PCI, and other regulatory bodies.

3. Composition of the Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell

4. Roles and Responsibilities

A. Institutional Level

- Formulate and periodically review anti-ragging policies and standard operating procedures (SOPs).
- Ensure that all students and parents submit anti-ragging affidavits at the time of admission.
- Display anti-ragging posters, helpline numbers, and contact details prominently on notice boards, hostels, and website.
- Conduct orientation and sensitization programs for freshers, faculty, and support staff.
- Oversee the functioning of Anti-Ragging Squads constituted at college and hostel levels.
- Monitor hostel premises, canteens, sports grounds, and transport facilities through regular surprise inspections.
- Maintain a Ragging Incident Register and ensure that every reported case is documented and investigated promptly.
- Submit quarterly reports to the University Grants Commission (UGC) through the Anti-Ragging web portal (<https://www.antiragging.in>).

B. Departmental / College Level

- Constitute Anti-Ragging Committees and Squads within each college (Medical, Nursing, Pharmacy, Paramedical).
- Conduct induction sessions highlighting institutional policies, code of conduct, and grievance redressal mechanisms.
- Appoint faculty mentors for small student groups to promote healthy interaction and guidance.
- Ensure close coordination between teaching faculty, hostel wardens, and student representatives.
- Report any untoward incident immediately to the ARMC.

C. Hostel Level

- Ensure 24-hour monitoring by wardens and security personnel.
- Maintain separate accommodation for freshers and seniors during the initial months.
- Conduct random checks and maintain a hostel complaint register accessible to students.

5. Reporting Mechanism

A. Student Reporting Channels

Students can report incidents of ragging through:

1. Direct approach to faculty members, mentors, or wardens.
2. Written complaint submitted to the Principal or Dean.
3. Email or online complaint form through the University website.
4. Helpline and toll-free number displayed on all notice boards.
5. UGC Anti-Ragging Helpline (24x7): 1800-180-5522 / www.antiragging.in

B. Internal Action Flow

1. Complaint received → acknowledged immediately (within 24 hours).
2. Preliminary inquiry by Anti-Ragging Squad → findings submitted to ARMC within 72 hours.
3. ARMC convenes meeting to deliberate findings → recommends disciplinary action if applicable.
4. University authority issues final order → copy forwarded to the concerned regulatory body.
5. Follow-up counseling and support offered to the victimized student(s).

6. Disciplinary Actions (as per UGC / NMC Guidelines)

Depending on the severity of the offence, disciplinary measures may include:

- Written apology and warning.
- Suspension from class/hostel/college.
- Debarring from examinations or scholarships.
- Expulsion from the institution and registration of FIR with police.

7. Documentation and Record Keeping

- Minutes of ARMC meetings.
- Reports of inquiries and actions taken.
- Orientation and sensitization program records.
- UGC portal compliance reports.
- Periodic monitoring and feedback analysis.

8. Reporting and Review Mechanism
